THE PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

Dear Friends,

Sunset Productions, the company that produced our documentary, In Search of Houston's History, is in the process of formatting the documentary into five to six minute segments that will be broadcast on You-Tube. A test broadcast of a segment from the program documenting the Shamrock Hotel already has been seen by thousands of viewers. When someone is interested in the Shamrock, they simply Google it, and they will be linked to the video segment of the documentary that covers the Shamrock.

Other topics in the documentary being formatted for You-Tube are: the Astrodome, the Rice Hotel/Capitol of the Republic of Texas, the Latin American Collection, the Little School of 400, Freedman's Town and the African American Collection, Howard Hughes, and Jesse Jones.

Sunset Productions also is creating a Google site that will promote the Friends of the Texas Room specifically and the documentary.

In addition, Texas PBS is developing a website for Texas history teachers through which the segments from the documentary will be made available to all Texas History classes in the state.

These new developments will give the Friends of the Texas Room, the HMRC and the Houston Public Library exposure to viewers all over the world within the next sixty days. It is an exciting time for the FTxR, and we are most grateful to Jim Bailey and Mark Susman who created the documentary and who presented us with these wonderful opportunities.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Knox Houghton

Julia Ideson Award

Dorothy Knox explained that the Julia Ideson Award was established in 2008 to recognize research projects that document Houston and Texas history and culture, incorporating significant use of resources at the Houston Metropolitan Research Center. The Friends honor authors of books and authors of scholarly publications in alternating years. This year the award goes to the author of a book.

Dr. Brian Behnken holds Bachelor's and Master's degrees from the University of Houston. In 2007 he earned a Ph. D. in United States History from the University of California at Davis. Currently he is Associate Professor of History and United States Latino/Latina Studies at Iowa State University. Dr. Behnken's list of books, articles, lectures, and conference presentations is extensive. His honors include the Texas State Historical Association's H. Bailey Carroll Award in 2008. The focus of his scholarship has been racial relations and civil rights in the United States.

This year's Julia Ideson Award was presented to Dr. Behnken's book, Fighting Their Own Battles: Mexican Americans, African Americans, and the Struggle for Civil Rights in Texas.

Following Dr. Behnken's speech, Dr. Julian Read introduced his new book, JFK'S Final Hours in Texas: An Eyewitness Remembers the Tragedy and its Aftermath.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:50 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Kathy Dissen, Recording Secretary

Happy 2014 from the HMRC Team!!

Happy Holidays from the Houston Metropolitan Research Center 2013

Original 1928 Houston Public Library Card from HMRC's Archives

HMRC helped honor the 50th anniversary of JFK's assassination in November by participating with the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC) and the University of Houston to offer a symposium and reception. The educational symposium discussed the historical and political significance of President Kennedy's appearance at the LULAC event the evening before he was assassinated. The reception was held in commemoration of the 50th anniversary of John F. Kennedy's historic appearance at a LULAC function on November 21st, 1963, the day before his assassination. The reception took place at the same venue and on the same day as the original event in Houston. Mikaela Selley, HMRC's Hispanic Collections Archivist, curated the exhibit on display during the reception. This exhibit is now on display at the Julia Ideson Building.

When Camelot Came to Houston

November 23, 2013 - March 1, 2014

Julia Ideson Building | 550 McKinney St., 77002

On November 21st, 1963, President John F. Kennedy attended a reception in Houston, Texas sponsored by the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC). That night is widely recognized as the first time a US president acknowledged Latinos as a significant voting bloc. Three years earlier, Kennedy had received an unprecedented eighty-five percent of the Mexican American vote to win the 1960 presidential election.

John J. Herrera, Houston lawyer and past LULAC president, tried to revitalize the Viva Kennedy club movement when he invited Kennedy to the LULAC State Director's Ball at the Rice Hotel in Houston on November 21st, 1963. The President was scheduled to be in Houston for a testimonial dinner for a Harris County legislator. Kennedy accepted the LULAC invitation over a thousand others. President Kennedy, First Lady Jacqueline Kennedy, Vice President Lyndon Baines Johnson and Lady Bird Johnson spent seventeen minutes with LULAC. Following a speech made by her husband praising the efforts of LULAC, Jackie Kennedy thrilled the crowd by speaking in Spanish. A mariachi band proceeded to serenade the presidential party.

Just fifteen hours after his historic visit in Houston, President Kennedy was assassinated in Dallas, Texas. He spent his last night with a group of Mexican American civil rights activists. Those seventeen minutes at the Rice Hotel live on as a key historical moment for LULAC and Mexican Americans.

This exhibition is generously supported by League of United Latin American Citizens Council 60, Houston Metropolitan Research Center, Houston Public Library and City of Houston. This exhibit is free and open to the public.

John J. Herrera and the Mexican-American Family and Photograph Collection: Digitized

Last year HMRC received a Texas Cultures Online grant from the University of North Texas' Portal to Texas History. This grant digitized most of HMRC's John J. Herrera Collection and all of HMRC's Mexican-American Family and Photograph Collection. The digitized files were received back this fiscal year and HMRC is currently working on creating the image descriptions for each digitized file. The digitized material can be found at <http://texashistory.unt.edu/explore/partners/HMRC/browse/>

A. Contributions

From time to time, the Friends of the Texas Room will purchase and contribute to the Houston Metropolitan Research Center of the Houston Public Library items that will enrich and enhance the above-named collections and ensure their preservation.

All such contributions will be purchased by the Friends directly and then given to the Library with specific stipulations as to how such contributions are to be used by the Library to enhance and ensure the preservation of the HMRC collections.

The Friends will give no money directly to the Library.

The Friends will not buy expendable supplies for the Library.

The Friends will not fund Library personnel.

B. Relationship to Administration and Staff

The Friends of the Texas Room is not to be involved in the administrative or employee actions of the Center, except that the Friends can question policies which, in its opinion, negatively impact the ability of the Center to provide service to the public.

CULTURAL MATCHING GIFTS

Are you or your spouse working for or retired from a corporation which makes cultural matching grants or volunteer involvement awards if you give to or do volunteer work for a cultural institution?

Will your employer match your gifts to cultural institutions that qualify under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Service Code?

The Friends of the Texas Room has such a qualification. Send your corporation's cultural matching funds form with your check for membership in FTR. If you volunteer your time as an officer of FTR or in the Texas Room or HMRC, keep track of your hours and turn them in to your corporation so that the FTR may obtain a grant from your corporation's program. This is "found money" for FTR and can be used towards making a difference to the Texas Room and HMRC.
