THE PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

Dear Friends,

The year 2014 marks many important anniversaries, both for our nation and for Houston. It is the two hundredth anniversary of the Treaty of Ghent which ended hostilities between the U. S. and England. It is the one hundredth anniversary of the beginning of World War I.

In Houston it marks the one hundredth anniversary of the opening of the Ship Channel, the one hundredth anniversary of the death of George Hermann which resulted in Hermann Park, and the one hundred and tenth anniversary of the opening of the first Houston Public Library. In celebration of the latter three anniversaries, the library is mounting exhibits on all three topics this summer. The Friends of the Texas Room will present related programs to coincide with the exhibits.

On May 28 Barrie Scardino Bradley, author of Houston's Hermann Park: A Century of Community, will talk about the history of the park. Attendees will have the opportunity to view the exhibit during the reception prior to the program.

On August 2, in lieu of a speaker, the Friends will honor the five study clubs which organized the City Federation of Clubs for the purpose of persuading Andrew Carnegie to give the City of Houston $50,000 to construct the city's first public library. Two of these clubs still exist: the Ladies' Reading Club and the Woman's Club. Their members will be our honored guests for a Saturday afternoon reception in the Ideson auditorium.

The reception also will celebrate the opening of a special exhibit of books, documents and artifacts relating to the five clubs and their accomplishments. Sponsored by the Friends, it will be entitled "Founding the Houston Public Library: Women's Clubs and Civic Activism at the Turn of the Twentieth Century". Betty Chapman and I are planning the exhibit with the help of the HMRC staff. I urge all of you to put Saturday, August 2 from 2:00 to 4:00 P. M. on your calendars for a delightful afternoon of iced tea, refreshments and nostalgia.

Finally, the library will mount an exhibit about the history of the Port of Houston which will be up through the fall. Our speaker at the October meeting will address issues relating to the port and to the Ship Channel.

I look forward to celebrating these milestones of Houston's history with all of you.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Knox Houghton

A. Contributions

From time to time, the Friends of the Texas Room will purchase and contribute to the Houston Metropolitan Research Center of the Houston Public Library items that will enrich and enhance the above-named collections and ensure their preservation.

All such contributions will be purchased by the Friends directly and then given to the Library with specific stipulations as to how such contributions are to be used by the Library to enhance and ensure the preservation of the HMRC collections.

The Friends will give no money directly to the Library.

The Friends will not buy expendable supplies for the Library.

The Friends will not fund Library personnel.

B. Relationship to Administration and Staff

The Friends of the Texas Room is not to be involved in the administrative or employee actions of the Center, except that the Friends can question policies which, in its opinion, negatively impact the ability of the Center to provide service to the public.

CULTURAL MATCHING GIFTS

Are you or your spouse working for or retired from a corporation which makes cultural matching grants or volunteer involvement awards if you give to or do volunteer work for a cultural institution?

Will your employer match your gifts to cultural institutions that qualify under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Service Code?

The Friends of the Texas Room has such a qualification. Send your corporation's cultural matching funds form with your check for membership in FTR. If you volunteer your time as an officer of FTR or in the Texas Room or HMRC, keep track of your hours and turn them in to your corporation so that the FTR may obtain a grant from your corporation's program. This is "found money" for FTR and can be used towards making a difference to the Texas Room and HMRC.
