THE PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

Dear Friends,

I know you all join me in welcoming Dr. Rhea Brown Lawson as the new Director of the Houston Public Library. Dr. Lawson brings a fresh vision to the library and is especially interested in raising the library's public image. She has agreed to be our speaker at our April 24th meeting. Please put this date on your calendar.

At the same time we must say "farewell" to our friend Will Howard who retired on December 30, 2005, after eighteen years in the Texas Room. Many of you know him well, and we all hope that he will find retirement enjoyable.

Finally, I want to pay tribute to the late Marguerite Johnston Barnes, a long-time patron of the Texas Room, who died in December. Mrs. Barnes came to Houston in 1946 and wrote for the Houston Post for the next thirty-seven years. She wrote two well-known books: Houston, The Unknown City and A Happy Worldly Abode, the history of Christ Church Cathedral from its founding in 1839 to 1964. We offer our deepest sympathy to her family.

MINUTES OF THE TEXAS ROOM: OCTOBER 15, 2005

Friends of the Texas Room met Saturday, October 25, 2005, at 10:15 a.m. at the Harris County Archives in the Criminal Justice Center, 1201 Franklin. Treasurer George Werner acting for President Dorothy Knox Houghton called the meeting to order, after which the minutes of the July 18, 2005, meeting were approved as printed in The Texas Room Dispatch.

Treasurer George Werner reported that we have a balance of $18,666.68. The video project on the Houston Metropolitan Research Center is underway. Some payments have been made for the conservation of the Wood maps, and we are waiting finalization of the map index.

Brenda Tirrell reported that the Library has a new director, Dr. Rhea Brown Lawson. Her experience as deputy director of the Detroit Public Library and former chief of the Central Library in Brooklyn will benefit Houston's large library system.

Sarah Canby Jackson, the Archivist of the Harris County Archives, had prepared an exhibit of various documents in the collection. She presented a slide program about what it takes to start an archive. She was hired in November, 2002 with no physical location and no budget. Today the Harris County Archives occupies 20,000 square feet on two floors of the Criminal Justice Center and is the only county archives in the state of Texas. Materials have been organized by Sarah with the help of a recently hired second archivist, about 50 volunteers, community service people, and, for the heavy lifting, county inmates.

The meeting adjourned at 11:10 a.m. for the participants to examine the stacks.

Respectfully submitted,
Carol Weaver for Betty Chapman

CULTURAL MATCHING GIFTS

Are you or your spouse working for or retired from a corporation which makes cultural matching grants or volunteer involvement awards if you give to or do volunteer work for a cultural institution?

Will your employer match your gifts to cultural institutions that qualify under IRS 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Service Code?

The Friends of the Texas Room has such a qualification. Send your corporation's cultural matching funds form with your check for membership in FTR. If you volunteer your time as an officer of FTR or in the Texas Room or HMRC, keep track of your hours and turn them in to your corporation so that the FTR may obtain a grant from your corporation's program. This is "found money" for FTR and can be used towards making a difference to the Texas Room and HMRC.

WHAT OUR FRIENDS ARE DOING

Please contact Jeff Lindemann, editor of The Texas Room Dispatch (jeff.lindemann@hccs.edu), with information about your volunteer service at the HMRC and about projects you are working on that utilize the resources of the HMRC.
